Introduction

First of all: thank you very much for allowing us to be part of the event. We are looking forward to a good and relaxed show together.

In addition to our technical requirements, we would like to give you a few prerequisites that are important to us so that we can offer a good and performant show.

Guestlist

We bring our own photographer (Miriam Sander) to all our shows, who will please be written on the guest list.

Catering

As we have two vegetarians in the band, we ask for a vegetarian alternative for the catering.

Parking

We need a secure parking space for a car and trailer.

Drinks

We ask that at least four non-carbonated water bottles be provided on stage.
